Christmas will be ever so much happier time, if the number of Christmas drunks could be reduced.

If the object of the dispensary is to help along the cause of temperance, why not have it closed on Christmas day so as to give Santa Claus a better chance?

Two days for Christmas holidays would be mighty acceptable to the clerks of town and there is not a merchant who would in the end suffer the loss of a single dollar by giving his clerks this extra day. What say the merchants to this?

Special attention is called to the advertisement providing for the incorporation of the Public Service Corporation, which will build an electric line from Charleston to Charlotte, and also to Augusta and Spartanburg. There is said to be considerable capital behind this capital. It is very probable that the road will be built. This road will pass through Winnsboro, affording it the relief it has so long needed for competitive transportation rates and facilities.

Death of Mr. Jno. B. Montgomery.

The dreaded reaper, Death, has again visited our community. This time it has taken from our midst Mr. John B. Montgomery, who died on the morning of December 10th from paralysis. At the time of his death he was living with his son, S. L. Montgomery.

Mr. Montgomery was in his 66th year and had been in feeble health for some time. He was an old Confederate veteran. He belonged Co. H, 6th S. C. Infantry. He enlisted in Capt. J. M. Brice's company, known as the Little River Guards, in 1861, and went into actual service April 11, 1861, and was paroled at Appomattox, Va., April 9, 1865.

At the time of Lee's surrender Mr. Montgomery was under Capt. Henry Dixon of Richland county. Mr. Montgomery's first visit home after entering the service was in 1863. He was a brave soldier and a good and loyal citizen and will be sadly missed by all who knew him.

He leaves two sons, Messrs S. L. and C. A. Montgomery. His remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at old Concord church.

The following old veterans acted as pall-bearers: W. Watt Brice, E. Wade Brice, Thos. W. Brice, W. J. Lathan, J. E. Craig, Jay Sexton, E. T. Fowler, Sam Shirley, J. C. Lewis, Joe Robinson, Jno. A. Stewart, E. T. Henry, J. M. Blain.

See those old veterans

With bowed heads,
While with grief and sorrow
They bury their dead.

For it brings up fresh

To their bleeding hearts
That thus with old comrades
They will soon have to part.

Obituary.

Mrs. Susannah M. Perry, daughter of Maj. B. H. and Amelia Robertson, was born in Fairfield county, S. C., Jan. 19th, 1836 and died at her old home Dec. 9th, 1906.

In early life she was married to Thos. J. Perry, of Liberty Hill, with whom for nearly half a century she lived a faithful mate in the truest sense of the word. For more than three score and ten years the soft light of a gentle Christian spirit has been reflected upon the world in which she lived. Mrs. Perry was the embodiment in even balance of the graces and virtues of a true woman, cultured and refined, yet modest and reserved. Everything seemed to be harmonious as she pursued the even tenor of her way in all the relationships of life. In early life she united herself with the church and it is but simple truth to say, "adorned the doctrine of God her Savior in all things." Her influence for good was graciously blessed. Always thoughtful and considerate of the comfort and happiness of others, hers was truly an unselfish life. A cross or unkind word was never heard to escape her lips. For nearly a year she had been in declining health and an attack of pneumonia, from which she was too feeble to rally, hastened the end. For her all was done that loving hands and medical skill suggested but God saw best to suffer her to be taken. It was truly pathetic to hear her gently murmur: "I am so tired, just let me rest a little." And now we know that she is resting in peace. She is greatly missed in the home.

She was laid to rest by gentle hands in Bethel church yard. The services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. W. Williams, and as we turned away we could truly say:

"Rest for the toiling hands,
Rest for the anxious brow;
Rest for the weary wayfare feet,
Rest from all labor now."

"Rest for the fevered brain,
Rest for the throbbing eye;
Thro' those parched lips of thine no more,
Shall pass the moan or sigh."

"B."

Outwits The Surgeon.

A complication of female troubles, with catarrh of the stomach and bowels, had reduced Mrs. Thos. S. Austin, of Leavenworth, Ind., to such a deplorable condition, that her doctor advised an operation; but her husband fearing fatal result, postponed this to try Electric Bitters; and to the amazement of all who knew her, this medicine completely cured her. Guaranteed cure for torpid liver, kidney disease, biliousness, jaundice, chills and fever, general debility, nervousness and blood poisoning. Best tonic made. Price 50c at Jno. H. McMaster & Co.'s drug store. Try it.

For the Public Library.

There was an interesting meeting of the Library Association at the Commercial Club rooms Friday evening for the purpose of planning for the work of the coming year. The librarian's report showed the library has had a good year of it. While there is still a deficit this is practically no larger than it was at the beginning of the year. There are now about eighty members, who are making good use of the fine opportunities offered by the library. It is hoped that all these will continue their membership during the coming year and that there will be many who will join. While the membership fee is only $1.00 for the year, the amount collected from this source is not sufficient to make the library self-sustaining. So the librarian was asked to make a canvass of the members for a renewal of their membership at $1.00 per year and for a contribution of at least as much as $1.00 additional. Failure, however, to pay this additional contribution will not deprive any member at all of all the privileges afforded by the library. New books for the library are greatly needed and it is necessary for additional money to be raised from some source other than the membership.

Letters of Administration

State of South Carolina,
County of Fairfield.

By D. A. Broom, Esq., Probate Judge:

Whereas, Josie S. Wilkes hath made suit to me to grant her letters of administration of the estate and effects of Richard L. Wilkes, deceased: These are, therefore, to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said Richard L. Wilkes, deceased, that they be and appear before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at Fairfield, Court House, South Carolina, on the 27th day of December next, after publication hereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said administration should not be granted.

Given under my hand, this 18th day of December, A. D. 1906.

D. A. BROOM,

JNO. H. McMASTER & COMPANY.

This man bought a supply of tobacco without acquainting himself with the distinctive taste of SCHNAPPS Tobacco, which has the cheering qualities that gratify his desire to chew, and at less expense than cheap tobacco.

SCHNAPPS has been advertised in this paper so that every chewer has had an opportunity to get acquainted with the facts and know that drugs are not used to produce the cheering quality found in the famous Piedmont country flue-cured tobaccos, and that SCHNAPPS is what he ought to chew. Still there are chewers who accept other and cheaper tobaccos that do not give the same pleasure.

Some day they'll get a taste of the real Schnapps—they'll realize what enjoyment they've missed by not getting SCHNAPPS long ago—then they'll feel like kicking themselves.

SCHNAPPS is sold everywhere in 5 cent cuts, and 10 and 15 cent plugs. Be sure you get the genuine.
